Recreational

65+/- acres of great recreational and hunting property with a really good amount of usable ground. Property is flat to rolling on top and pretty much all usable as you work your way down the road. Long range seasonal views that could be year round with a little timber management. This wooded tract offers excellent wildlife habitat for deer and turkeys. It would make a great hunting camp or off grid getaway with plenty of privacy. It's surrounded by other large tracts as well, offering the opportunity to really escape and be off grid.
